Stop surfing channels, just select and enjoy

View in a single window your TV show and whats currently showing at the same time on other channels.

Gone are the days of cluttered desktops with multiple windows, you can immediately view all your programme information at the blink of an eye.

It avoids you having to flick between channels unnecessarily as you can immediately see whats on.

Share your shows

Share what you love best with your iPod. Get all your favourite shows in your hands by exporting them to your iPod. Enjoy movies and TV shows anywhere and whenever you choose.

Make TV part of your Desktop

With TVMini Express and TheTube™ software, you can choose to place the TV window 'always on top'.

Combined with the smart resize option that automatically adapts window resizing to it's position on the screen, you can now have TV part of your everyday Mac use. Check the news while you work, get the latest sports results while typing your e-mails, TVMini Express will adapt your TV window according to your workflow.

With all of this under your belt you're ready to go and enjoy a more pleasurable TV viewing experience.
